Gotham Dream Cars NO. 275

986.2% THREE-YEAR GROWTH

REVENUE: $2.9 MILLION EMPLOYEES: 14

CEO: NOAH LEHMANN-HAUPT FOUNDED: 2003

New York, NY www.gothamdreamcars.com

What it does: Rents out extremely high-end cars, such as Ferraris, Lamborghinis, Bentleys and Aston Martins for short-term and long-term leases (from one day to one month). It also runs driving experience events where participants can drive a “sampler menu” of exotic cars.

Why it's growing: Gotham Dream Cars started with one Ferrari in a garage and the founders made all of the deliveries. They organically grew the company by re-investing profits—and today the fleet consists of 22 cars and is worth $4 million.

What's noteworthy: The three founders of the company—Noah Lehmann-Haupt, Raefer Gabriel, and Rob Ferretti are all under 30 years of age.

In the company's own words

“Gotham Dream Cars is the leading source for “ultra-exotic” vehicle rentals and driving experiences in the United States. With the country’s largest dedicated fleet of exotic cars, our vehicles are available by the day, weekend, week or more. We offer traditional rentals, group driving events (The Dream Car Tour™), and an exclusive fractional-style membership club (DreamShare™) that gives car lovers the joy of exotic car ownership without the hassles of maintaining, insuring, or purchasing the often finicky and always expensive high-end vehicles.

Gotham Dream Cars was founded for a very simple reason: We searched for a place to rent a supercar in the Northeast, and we didn’t find any worth a phone call. So Gotham Dream Cars was born.

Our passion is driving, pure and simple. The speed. The power. The adrenaline. That’s why our mission is to bring our clients the most exotic, exciting, and outrageous fleet of rental vehicles in the world – cars that can’t be found anywhere else.

It’s time to stop dreaming and start driving.”
